Faith talk for families: Spiritual works of mercy

Questions to talk about at home during meals or at bedtime, or in the car.

- How does your family practice forgiveness?
- Who could use your family’s care and comfort this month?
- How patient are the members of your family? What is something you could each do to become more patient with one another?