

Links for Holy Week

The most solemn week in the Church calendar, Holy Week is a time to contemplate, pray, attend your parish liturgies—and try to explain it all to your Catholic kids. You'll find resources from Teaching Catholic Kids under the "Lent" and "Holy Week" categories on this website. Here are more activities and ideas from around the web:

- From CatholicMom.com, you'll find coloring activities, Stations of the Cross for Children, Easter symbols, and more resources and crafts. Click here.
- Catholic Icing has a craft round-up, printables, recipes, DIY Resurrection Eggs and much more. Click here.
- From Catholic Inspired, directions to make a paper Crown of Thorns. Click here.
- From Catholic Sistas, a craft to help your children walk with Jesus. Click here.
- Ideas for Holy Week prayer services from The Religion Teacher. Click here.
- Family movie suggestions for Holy Week from the Catholic All Year blog. Click here.

Do you have a suggestion for a web site, activity, movie or other resource? Let us know in the comments.