The NEW Teaching Catholic Kids! (And updated Take Out!)

Welcome!

Teachingcatholickids.com has gotten a facelift, and we hope you like it as much as we do! You'll still find all the great content you rely on us for, but it looks a little different, a little better. We want to be your go-to site for resources that help your family learn and live the faith.

New editor Lindsey Riesen

I'd also like to share that our parenting magazine, Take Out is new and improved! You'll find some of Take Out's articles here on teachingcatholickids.com but to get ALL of the great content you'll need to subscribe here. I hope you'll consider joining the Take Out family! You can also follow our Instagram feed at takeout_mag to get inspiration and support for living the faith.
